New River State Park's TRACK Trail

The Hickory Trail is a one-mile loop trail with a short out-and-back section that will deliver you to the river's edge.

The trail winds gently downhill through the woods until it reaches the banks of the New River. Just remember, it's a moderately strenuous, uphill hike back to the visitor center's parking lot.

Take your time, and have fun!

www.kidsinparks.com