

THE FOREST IN FALL

As fall approaches, leaves stop making food and the chlorophyll (green pigment) breaks down. This allows other pigments to show, painting the forest in reds, yellows, oranges, browns, and more!

Yellow

Brown

How many colors can you find on your hike?

check off the ones you find

Orange

Red

Multi-color

