Connect and Color: One of America's Favorite wild Birds

Did you know that North Carolina, Virginia, West Virginia, Kentucky, Ohio, Indiana, and Illinois all have the same state bird? This bird has the honor of being the state bird in more places than any other bird in our country. Connect the dots and see if you can name the bird. Still having trouble? Try coloring the bird all red, with a black mask and orange beak.
