

Lake Herman State Park TRACK Trail

Melting glacial ice formed this 1,350-acre lake thousands of years ago. Lake Herman State Park offers more than 3 miles of hiking trails with spectacular views of the lake, and historic features such as the Herman Luce Cabin. Observe wildlife in the native oak woodlands and prairie grasses which are inhabited by a variety of birds and animals.

Have fun as you travel the trails, exploring the park and discovering its wonders!